

Introduction to the use of various TOOLS CUPPING, Kinetape

The CUPPING + KINE TAPE presentation on the different parts of the body and system with concepts (TCM, Osteopathy, etc.).

- Introduction of the use of CUCKERS + KINE TAPE by targeting the client's needs at the time of the session
- know how to use the different tools related to the different segments of the body (related to anatomy, physiology, etc.)

Training location: Vevey 1800, Switzerland

Date: 2 days of continuing education

- according to body segments or system
- the dates will be indicated on news-event website and registration
- the dates will be indicated on site booking online and registration possible

Time: 9:00 to 18:00 from Saturday to Sunday

General

Target audience : Anyone who wants to know the various therapeutic tools with a differential assessment logic

Holders of a training in health or movement science, holders of a Complementary or alternative training in health and care.

Training Objective:

Understand the different tools and recognize contraindications

Develop, with the help of clinical cases, demonstrations, test interpretations and practical scenarios of the following topics Assessment with a manual therapy approach - osteopathic and TCM.

Practical workshops

During this training, practical workshops will be offered

- manual assessment workshop with the appropriate exclusion tests
- Global Treatment Workshop
- workshop on special cases

Information : On the website: Training www.1-centre-sos.com/cours

Registrations possible by the site: news-event and further information: email:

1.centre.s.o.s@gmail.com

Registration deadlines: Date 2 months before the start of the course

Number of places limited to about 20 people per course

Course fee: CHF 600.00 - for 2 days

Your payment confirms your registration and is to be paid 2 months before the start date of the course on the account of the association. A RIB or payment slip with IBAN will be sent to participants upon registration.